FORMAT

An Asia Leaders Series private lunch is a quarterly meeting for a maximum of 12 participants. The two hour discussion is moderated to provide a balance of perspectives.

EXECUTIVE LUNCH

Members-Only

Dan Wang, serving as the Chief Economist at one of Hong Kong's leading banks, brings her extensive expertise to an exclusive assembly of global executives in London, co-chaired by Sir Martin Sorrell. In this session, we unveil Ms. Wang's profound insight into China's current economic climate, engaging in a dynamic discussion to deepen our understanding of the political pressures and worldwide implications of the recent downturn.
